HOME SWEET HOME

Western Michigan wraps up its first homestand of the season on Sunday afternoon as it welcomes Campbell to University Arena. The Brown and Gold have won five straight non-conference home games.

LAST TIME OUT

The Broncos got the first win for new head coach Kahil Fennell on Thursday night, knocking off Kalamazoo College 99-52. Western Michigan made 17 three-pointers in the contest, one shy of the single-game program record. Mason Bendinger led the five Broncos in double-figures with 22 points on 9-of-12 shooting. WMU was also plus-33 (63-30) on the glass, with Janis Jünemann pacing the Brown and Gold with 11 rebounds.

DIALING LONG DISTANCE

WMU enters Sunday having made at least one three-pointer in 488 straight games, dating back to the 2010-11 season. The Broncos hit 17 three-pointers in Thursday's victory over Kalamazoo, one shy of the single-game program record, on a program-record 43 attempts. The 17 triples were made by 10 different players, with Rob Lee Jr.'s three makes leading the way. Through its first two games, Western Michigan has connected on 39.7% of its three-point attempts, the second-best mark in the MAC.

SERIES HISTORY

Western Michigan and Campbell are meeting for the second consecutive year after having not met prior to last season. The Fighting Camels won last season's encounter, 91-82, on their home floor.

SCOUTING THE CAMELS

Campbell comes into Sunday's game with just one game under its belt, having lost 83-64 at NC State on Opening Night. Rashawn Inglemon paced the Fighting Camels with 20 points against the Wolfpack, while Lance Waddles was right behind with 19 points and nine rebounds. Like Western Michigan, Campbell brought in a new coach for this season and was one of the six programs in NCAA Division I to have zero players returning from the 2025-26 season.
