• Quarterback Dante Reno earned his second Ivy League Offensive Player of the Week award for his 298-yard, four-touchdown performance against Merrimack.

• Yale currently boasts the Ivy League's top scoring offense, scoring 31.5 points per game, two games into the season.

• The win over Merrimack was Yale's 10th-straight at the Yale Bowl going back to the 2024 season.

• Graham Smith has scored a touchdown in four of his last five appearances going back to the end of the 2025 season, including three-straight to start the 2026 season.

• Yale has now won eight-straight games against teams from Massachusetts going back to 2023.

• The 36:09 of possession the Bulldogs had against Merrimack was the most since holding onto the ball for 37:36 against Harvard in 2024.

• Hugo Djeumeni Kemeni, Phoenix Grant and Brandon Webster were all named to the Ivy League Week Three Honor Roll.

WHAT TO KNOW

• Yale returns six All-Ivy honorees from 2025: first-team selections Abu Kamara and Brandon Webster, along with second-teamer Zairion Jackson-Bass and honorable mentions Quinton Lewis, Phoenix Grant and Jaylin Tate.

• The Ivy schedule features home matchups with Dartmouth (Oct. 10), Brown (Nov. 7) and Princeton (Nov. 14). The 142nd edition of The Game against Harvard (Nov. 21) will be hosted at Fenway Park, closing out the regular season at the historic ballpark for the first time since 2018.

• The Bulldogs will appear in front of a national audience on ESPNU three times throughout the 2026 season (Oct. 10 vs Dartmouth, Oct. 23 @ Penn and Nov. 21 vs Harvard @ Fenway Park). The Bulldogs are 9-4 in such games dating back to 2018.

• The Ivy Football Preseason Poll selected Yale to finish first in the conference this season, earning 127 points and 15 first-place votes out of 16 total voters. Those 15 first-place votes were the most earned by any Ivy League team in the poll since the Bulldogs secured 14 of 16 in 2007.

2026 YALE FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

THE SERIES

Dartmouth has been Yale's toughest opponent over the last 10 matchups, with the Bulldogs going 3-7 against the Big Green dating back to 2015.

The Bulldogs are 56-46-6 against the Big Green going back to their first matchup in 1884 and Yale is 38-31-5 all-time against Dartmouth at the Yale Bowl.

In 2025, the Big Green led a furious fourth-quarter rally against the Bulldogs in Hanover, scoring all 17 of their points in the final frame to take Yale down 17-16, capped off by a 51-yard Owen Zalc field goal at the buzzer.

SCOUTING DARTMOUTH

Dartmouth was picked to finish third in the 2026 Ivy League Preseason Poll, with 94 points. In 2025, the Big Green went 7-3 overall and 4-3 in the Ivy League, finishing tied with Penn for third place in the conference due to a 35-28 loss to Brown on the final day of the regular season.

The Big Green started the 2026 season with two close losses, 24-20 to Lehigh and 31-28 to Monmouth, their first 0-2 start since 2009. However, the team bounced back this past weekend with a hard-fought 14-10 win against Penn to kick off conference play.

Dartmouth is currently No. 6 in the Ivy League in both scoring offense (20.7 ppg) and defense (21.7 ppg).

The Big Green offense is led by veteran quarterback Grayson Saunier, who leads the team with 583 passing yards and four touchdowns to go along with 120 rushing yards and a score with his legs. Running back Myles Craddock is No. 3 in the Ivy League in rushing currently, with 258 yards and three touchdowns.

Dartmouth's best player on defense has been defensive back Harrison Keith, leading the team in total tackles (27), tackles for loss (3.0), pass breakups (3) and quarterback hits (1).

Former Ivy League Special Teams Player of the Year Owen Zalc is having a rocky start to his season, going 2-6 on field goals three games in, but 8-8 on PATs.

RENO EARNS SECOND GOLD HELMET AWARD OF THE SEASON

Junior quarterback Dante Reno of the Yale football team has been selected as this week's New England Football Writers Association Gold Helmet Award winner, presented by the Jack Grinold/Eastern Massachusetts Chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Reno earns his second Gold Helmet Award of the season after leading Yale to a 41-24 comeback victory over Merrimack. He is the first Yale player to receive the honor twice in a season since Kurt Rawlings in 2019.

The Bulldogs erased a 21-7 second-quarter deficit and outscored the Warriors 34-3 over the remainder of the game.

Reno threw for 298 yards and four touchdowns, including a 50-yard completion, while adding a career-high 39 rushing yards. His rushing total surpassed his entire total from the 2025 season.

KEVIN CAHILL

Joel E. Smilow '54 Head Coach

- Named the Joel E. Smilow '54 Head Coach of Yale Football on Feb. 23, 2026. He is the 35th coach in the history of the Yale program.

- He previously spent 10 seasons on the Bulldogs' coaching staff from 2012-2022, contributing to three Ivy League championship teams (2017, 2019 and 2022) and serving as Associate Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator in his final five years with the program.

- Led a significant turnaround of the Lehigh football program as its head coach. He inherited a 2-9 program and, in just his second season, guided the Mountain Hawks to a 9-4 record and a Patriot League championship. In 2025, Lehigh followed with a record-setting 12-1 campaign. Lehigh was one of only two teams in the FCS who entered the playoffs undefeated, and the Mountain Hawks climbed as high as No. 3 in the national rankings during the 2025 season.

- Cahill was named the recipient of the 2025 Eddie Robinson Award, presented annually to the National FCS Coach of the Year, becoming just the second head coach in Lehigh history to earn the honor and the first since 2001. He emerged from a group of 15 finalists, receiving 136 points and 12 first-place votes.

- Under Cahill's leadership, Lehigh captured back-to-back Patriot League titles in 2024 and 2025, giving the program a league-best 14 football championships. The Mountain Hawks advanced to the second round of the FCS playoffs in consecutive seasons. The 2024 team earned the program's first playoff victory since 2011 with a win at Richmond, while the 2025 squad secured the No. 5 seed in the FCS playoffs following a 12-0 regular season, just the sixth undefeated regular season in program history.

- Over his three seasons, Cahill mentored 27 All-Patriot League selections, including the 2025 Offensive Player of the Year, Luke Yoder, and Defensive Player of the Year, Tyler Ochojski. Lehigh's 12 wins in 2025 matched the program record for victories in a season, and the team's 17-game regular season winning streak, dating back to 2024, was the longest active streak in the FCS.

- In 2024, Cahill was named Patriot League Coach of the Year, ECAC Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2025, he was recognized as AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year and led the Mountain Hawk staff to Dick Biddle Patriot League Coaching Staff of the Year honors. Cahill joined Yale after four seasons on the staff at the University of Maine, including three as Special Teams Coordinator, while also coaching the wide receivers and running backs. During his tenure, he helped the Black Bears reach the FCS playoffs twice.

- In his previous tenure at Yale, Cahill oversaw one of the nation's most productive offensive units. In 2022, the Bulldogs went 8-2 overall and 6-1 in Ivy League play to capture their third Ivy League title in five seasons, leading the league in total offense and ranking among the top 25 in the FCS.

- In 2019, helped lead Team 147 to a 9-1 season that was capped with a thrilling 50-43, double overtime victory over Harvard in The Game. The Bulldogs trailed by 19 points early in the fourth quarter but scored two touchdowns in the final 90 seconds to force overtime before finishing off the remarkable comeback as darkness set in at Yale Bowl.

- In 2017, helped guide the Bulldogs to their first outright Ivy title in 37 years. Team 145, which included 20 all-league selections, finished with a No. 24 national ranking after earning the Blue's first Ivy championship in 11 seasons. The championship was clinched in grand fashion with a 24-3 win over Harvard before 52,000 fans at Yale Bowl.

- Earlier, Cahill spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons at Murray State University, coaching the wide receivers and serving as the Racers' Recruiting Coordinator, where he mentored two all-conference student-athletes. His first Division I coaching experience came at the University of Tennessee-Martin in 2004 and 2005, helping the program record its first winning season in 13 years. He began his coaching career at Maine Maritime Academy in 2001 before returning to his alma mater, Springfield College, for two seasons.

- A standout student-athlete, Cahill was a three-year starting quarterback and a three-year starting pitcher at Springfield College, helping lead the program to two NCAA playoff appearances. He was twice recognized as the ECAC Division III New England Player of the Year.

- A native of New York Mills, N.Y., Cahill graduated from Springfield College in 2001 with a degree in physical education and earned a master's in athletic administration in 2004.
